

Usability Design Project - Submission 4 Rubric

Rubrics provide guidelines for performance expectations. Actual grading may vary to reflect quality and quantity of submitted work, adherence to briefs and application of learning from unit content.

	Below Expectations	Satisfactory Attempt	Developing Skills	Strong Performance	Exceptional Performance
	Partly correct, major issues.	Generally correct, several notable issues.	Mostly correct, some notable issues.	Mostly correct, only minor issues.	Highly nuanced work, very minor issues.
Group: Introduction and Formatting (30%)
Presentation Introduction	The introduction lacks a clear overview and only provides vague information about the project.	The introduction provides an overview of the presentation goals and summary of issues, but lacking target audience information.	The introduction provides an overview of the presentation, but only vague information about audience and issues.	The presentation overview is concise. Target audience described as a general group. Specific issues have been stated.	The presentation overview is concise. Target audience has specific attributes. Specific issues are described with severity ratings.
Slide Format	The slide formatting is unprofessional or inconsistent. References are present but incomplete or inaccurate.	Slide formatting is generally tidy but with notable formatting inconsistency between team members. References appear to be complete.	Slide formatting is generally tidy with some minor inconsistency. Some content could be clearer. References appear to be complete.	The formatting of the slides is consistent and clear throughout. References appear to be complete.	The formatting of the slides is professional with excellent consistency throughout. References appear to be complete.
Individual: Usability Explanations and Spoken Delivery(70%)
Explanation of Solution	The solution is described superficially and does not adequately address a specific heuristic.	The implemented solution is described vaguely and addresses a heuristic with low relevance or significant error.	The implemented solution is described adequately but vaguely applies a specific relevant heuristic.	The implemented solution is described adequately and a relevant heuristic is applied with only minor issues.	The implemented solution is described clearly and demonstrates a strong understanding of the relevant heuristic.
Usability Theory	Explanation of the interface is mostly descriptive and only asserted that theory was applied.	A specific interface feature is identified, but the theory lacks relevance or is duplicated theory.	A specific interface feature is described with relevant theory applied slightly incorrectly.	A specific design decision is explained with reasoning that applies theory correctly.	A specific design decision is explained, demonstrating nuanced understanding of relevant theory.
Usability Impact	Usability impact is only vaguely or informally addressed.	Usability impact is explained mostly based on general user benefits.	Usability impact is explained mentions 1 or more ISO usability components superficially.	Usability impact is explained with correct application of 1 most relevant ISO usability component.	Usability impact is explained with 1 most relevant ISO usability component and relevant measure.
Slide Content	A slide deck is used, but content provides minimal support to the delivery.	A slide deck is used, but content has some unclear relationship to explained features.	The slide deck has images for all discussed features, minimal use of annotation or supporting text.	Images are annotated to highlight relevant features, though the supporting text could be more useful.	Images are annotated to highlight relevant features. Text is concise and made the delivery easy to follow.
Presentation Delivery	Delivery seemed highly unprepared. Unclear with frequent mistakes.	Spoken delivery is mostly clear with some notable errors impacting clarity of information.	Spoken delivery is mostly clear with some errors but minimal impact on overall clarity of information.	Clearly spoken with little error, but could be more practiced for more engaging delivery.	Delivery was confident and very well-prepared. Clearly spoken and highly engaging.
